Profile

I am a Year 13 student studying 'A' Level English, Art and Drama. I would love to combine my creativity and communication skills in a diverse and past-paced environment. I have achieved my Grade 4 LAMDA award in Public Speaking and Duke of Edinburgh Gold Award. I am looking for mentorship and work experience in the Film and TV industries.

Work History

SEPTEMBER 2013
76 Ltd

Production Assistant (Unpaid Work Experience)

I assisted at this London-based TV Commercial Production company, working closely with a Producer. I was reired to help prepare arrangements for film shoots, compile treatments and run errands.

JUNE 2013 – PRESENT
Mr and Mrs Viner

Babysitter (Part-time paid)

I walk the children, aged 5, 7 and 9 home from school and then help them with their homework, play games with them and am there to look after them in an emergency. I do this each week day for an hour before Mrs Bloggs gets home from work.

JULY 2012
Effusion

Project Assistant (Paid work experience)

My school organised for me to work with Effusion, which is a design agency in East London. I ran errands for the team, took notes in meetings, answered the phone and took messages.

JANUARY 2012 – PRESENT
David Jones

Writing (Mentorship)

I meet with David each month to discuss how my writing skills are improving and talk about ideas for short stories. He used to be a journalist for a national newspaper.
